CLUB NEWS

Several things to talk about in this week's newsletter. First of all a big thanks to all who volunteered and rang bells on Saturday at the Salvation Army. Your efforts are truly appreciated.

Bob again recognized to Rotarians for their military service by presenting them with a Rotary Armed Services pin. Both Mike Skipton and our Assistant District Governor, Rob Simmon, were recipients of this pin. Thanks for your service to our country!

Club elections were held today. A full slate of nominees were approved by those in attendance. Thank you to all who agreed to serve in these roles. A very special thanks goes out to one of our newest members, Katie Kyker, who has agreed to serve as our club president (her term does not begin until July 1, 2019). Other "election results" were as follows:

President Elect: Cary Jackson (2018-2019)

President Nominee: Katie Kyker (2019-2020)

Secretary: Lucinda Klein Lobardo (2018-2019)

Treasurer: Craig Dreismeier (2018-2019)

At Large Board Member: Chuck Hannan (2018-2020)

Again a special thanks to all who has agreed to serve in these very important roles for our club.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Just a reminder that we will not be meeting next Wednesday due to the upcoming holidays. Our next meeting will not take place until January 3, 2018. It is my hope that everyone has a safe and spectacular holiday season.
